ROGER A. PRYOR DEAD

Distinguished Virginian Passes Away at His Home in New York—Had Attained Ninety Years—Was One Time Congressman From Virginia.

New York, March. 15—Roger Atkinson Pryor, former justice of the New York Supreme Court and famous as a soldier in the Confederate army, died at his home here last night at the age of ninety years.

Justice Pryor had been ill for several weeks. A week ago pneumonia, which was the immediate cause of his death, set in.

Judge Roger A. Pryor was the last survivor of the firing on Fort Sumter He outlived the thousands of participants on both sides of the historic conflict.

Offered the distinction of firing the first shot that was to precipitate the War Between the States, he declined "I could not fire the first gun." he said. The distinction thus fell to Edmund Ruffin.

As a young Congressman and news paper editor at thirty-two years of age, Pryor's ringing speeches in favor of State rights aroused his native Virginia. The State was hesitating on the point of secession when "the eloquent tribune of Virginia," as Horace Greeley called him rose before an assemblage of constitutents and thundered:

"Strike one blow and Virginia will secede in an hour by Shrewsbury clock!"

Born in Dinwiddie County, Va., in 1828, he was only thirty-seven years old when he faced life anew. He had served in the historic Thirty-sixth Congress. As special commissioner under President Pierce, at the age of twenty-eight, he had forced Greece to release Jonas King, the celebrated missionary from prison, and refund to him $36,000.

MOTOR BOOTLEGGERS

Danville, Va., March 15.—Halting automobile bootleggers is by no means as easy as searching trains for liquor, according to W. C. Hall, agent for the prohibition department. Twice recently prohibition agents have been "rushed" by the automobile blockade runners, who opened fire at them with revolvers while they approached and after they had passed. On the Orange county pike, leading to Richmond, the agents have laid a trap by placing across a long bridge an automobile. This necessitates the halting of the bootleggers or a wreck and the agent cut off escape by guarding the mouht of the bridge. More than 300 quarts and a handsome car recently were caught in this way.

GIVEN LIFE TERM

Benjamin Johnson, Colored, Slayer of Payne Sentenced.

Benjamin Johnson, colored, charged with shooting and killing State Prohibition Inspector William E. Payne was sentenced to life imprisonment by a jury in the Circuit Court for Alexandria county yesterday afternoon, Judge Brent presiding. The jury was out several hours. The murder of Payne occurred February 20 at Rosslyn, Alexandria county, when he attempted to place Johnson under arrest for violating the prohibition law.

PORTSMOUTH EXPANDS

Norfolk, Va., March 15.—Under an opinion handed down by the Virginia Supreme Court Thursday Portsmouth becomes third largest city in Virginia by reason of the annexation of a half a dozen suburbs which will be allowed. The county of Norfolk, in which Portsmouth is situated, appealed the judgment of the lower court which granted the annexation to the Appellate Court.

The annexed territory embraces 10 square miles and about 15,000 people. The annexed area is almost as large as the present city, and it is estimated by the city officials that the police and fire forces will have to be doubled in order to take care of the new portions.

JUVENILE OFFENDERS

Two Youths Arraigned in the Police Court This Morning Charged With Housebreaking and Robbery—Held for the Grand Jury.

Numerous robberies have been reported to the police during the past few weeks. In some cases the same places were entered twice within a week.

Yesterday Washington policemen picked up Frank B. Waters, 17 years old, of this city, and John A. Dolby, of Kansas City, Mo., who say he is 15 years old, although he looks several years older, on suspicion of committing robberies in Alexandria, and they were later brought to this city by Chief Goods and Sergeant Scott. After having been placed in the station house the youths acknowledged they ahd committed most of the robberies which have recently occurred here.

The alleged housebreakers were at the time wearing clothes they had taken from houses in Alexandria.

On March 7, it is alleged, Waters entered the store of J. Bernheimer, southwest corner of King and Lee streets, and carried off two suits of clothes, two watches, two pair of shoes, a suit case, shirts, neckties and several pairs of hose.

On March 9 Waters and Dolby, according to the police, visited the store of R. E. Knight & Son and stole knives, watches, watch charms, razors, pipes, a suit case and hand satchels.

On March 12 Waters, it is alleged, entered the store of Fred. Ayers and stole three revolvers, a flashlight and seven or eight dollars in money.

On March 14 the couple entered the store of M. Sperling, 615 King street, and helped themselves to shoes, shirts, etc.

On March 13 the boys again entered R. E. Knight & Son's store and carried off a number of articles. After having entered the thieves loaded a gun found in the store, also several revolvers, and placed them in convenient places, for the purpose, it is stated, of shooting policemen should they enter and attempt to stop them in their work.

They are also charged with entering and robbing the office of Aitcheson & Bro., on lower King street.

The youths were arraigned in the Police Court this morning and held for the action of the grand jury.

FORMER CHANCELLOR

Berlin, March 15.—Dr. Georg Michaelis, the former imperial chancellor, is the latest German statesman slated to join the ranks of the officially unemployed. The Prussian ministry of the Interior has requested his resignation from the post of over-president of the province of Pomerania, to which he was appointed after his retirement from the chancellorship.

CHANDLER HEADS COLLEGE

Richmond Educator Succeeds Tyler As William and Mary President

Williamsburg, Va., March 15.—Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, superintendent of schools of Richmond, was elected yesterday to succeed Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, as president of historic William and Mary College. The election was made by the board of visitors. The names of two men were presented, they being Dr. James Southall Wilson, member of the college faculty, and Dr. Chandler. After it was apparent Dr. Chandler was favored by most members of the board, it was decided to make his election unanimous.

Dr. Tyler's resignation becomes effective July 1. Dr. Chandler, who succeeds him, was indorsed by the Richmond alumni of William and Mary at a meeting in Richmond this week. He has been identified with educational affairs in Richmond several years.

SPARTACANS FIGHT ON

Morgue Space at Premium—Hard to Find a Place for Bodies of All The Slain—Twenty-Four Are Executed in German Cities.

London, March 15. — Spartacan forces still retain part of the Berlin suburb of Lichtenberg and are stubbornly resisting the Government forces, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says. Fighting is continuing in Lichtenberg and also in the Karlshorst.

Numerous persons have been killed and wounded in the fighting. Many buildings have been destroyed by bombs. The dispatch says that only a few messages are reaching Copenhagen from Berlin and that these are delayed.

Copenhagen, March, 15.—The number of victims of the latest Spartacan disturbance in Berlin, according to the Zeitung Am Mittag of that city, is so great that it is difficult to find accommodations for the bodies in the Berlin morgues. The paper reports that there are 196 bodies in the morgue of Hanoverstrasse, of which 42 have not been identified. The capacity of the morgue is exhausted.

The newspaper says there are almost as many dead in the garrison hospital, while there are 115 bodies at the Friedrichshain Hospital, in Eastern Berlin. There are 30 dead at the Urban Hospital in Southeastern Berlin.

Berlin, March 15.— Twenty-four members of the defunct People's Marine Division were summarily executed this week as a result of their attempt to make an armed attack on Government troops in the building in a downtown section of Berlin, where the offices of the division's paymaster were located. In addition 250 members of the former Sailors' Guard were arrested and imprisoned to await the action of a military court.

Want Change of City Government

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TAKES FIRST STEP IN THIS DIRECTION AT ANNUAL MEETING LAST NIGHT

Under Provisions of Commission Manager Plan Five Councilmen and Manager Would Handle City's Affairs—Next Move Will be to Have Voters of City Decide on Question—If Adopted Change Will Become Operative September 1, 1920.

The first step toward securing for Alexandria a new form of government to be known as the commission manager plan was taken last night by the Chamber of Commerce at a largely attended meeting held in the auditorium of the Enlisted Men's Club when that body unanimously endorsed a plan for such a form of government prepared by R. Stuart Royer, business manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Under this plan the ward lines are wiped out. Five councilmen are elected by the people at large. The council will elect one of its members to preside over the meetings who shall be ex-officio mayor. He shall have the power and duties as other members of council, with a vote, but no veto, and shall be the official head of the city.

The council will serve without compensation, or receive a small annual salary, but in applying to the judge of the circuit court for the calling of an election, it must be set out whether the council will receive annual salary. If a salary is paid it shall be fixed by five resident taxpayers appointed by the circuit court.

Offices Not Effected

The offices of city treasurer, city sergeant, commonwealth's attorney, commissioner of revenue and clerk of the corporation court will not be affected in anyway by the adoption of the commission manager form of government, and they will be elected by the vote of the people at large. It is provided that the council will at their first meeting, or as soon thereafter as deemed advisable, appoint the city manager who will be the chief administrative officer of the city and who need not be a resident of the city or state.

Three New Directors

The Chamber of Commerce before adjoining elected the following directors: Colin H. Livingstone, president of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation; Judge Samuel G. Brent of the circuit court, and Julian Y. Williams. There were five candidates up for directors and the election proved interesting.

Mr. Livingstone is director for three years and Judge Brent and Mr. Williams for two years each.

Address by Col. Hodges.

The meeting was called to order by Robert L. Payne, president of the Chamber of Commerce, who read his annual report. During the evening an interesting address on the new form of government was delivered by Col. Leroy Hodges, secretary to Governor Westmoreland Davis.

The speakers said the plan was not a new fangled idea and had been operated successfully for many years past in this country and also in the city of Glasgow Scotland. The plan of organization was shown by means of charts exhibited by Col. Hodges.

Unanimous For Change.

At the conclusion of the reading of the reports Dr. W. M. Smith, city postmaster, offered a resolution that the plan for the new form of government recommended by the board of directors be adopted and President Payne called on all those favoring the project to rise and every man in the hall signified their intention of favoring the project by rising.

Endorse "White Way."

A resolution of J. William May that the Chamber give its endorsement to the project for the better illumination of King street was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Royer's report in part reads as follows:

Duties of City Manager

General duties of City Manager—1—The city manager shall see that within the city the laws, ordinances, resolutions and by-laws of the council are faithfully executed.

Attend all meetings of the council, and recommend for adoption such measures as he shall deem expedient.

Make reports to the council from time to time upon the affairs of the city; keep the council fully advised of the city's financial condition, and its future financial needs.

Prepare and submit to the council a tentative budget for the next fiscal year.

He shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the council not in conflict with the foregoing, and shall be bonded as the council may deem necessary.

Appointment of city officers and employees—Such city officers and employees as the council shall determine are necessary for the proper administration of the city shall be appointed, and may be removed by the city manager, except those in the financial, legal, and judicial departments, and the clerical and other attendants of the council; but the city manager shall report each apointment and removal to the council at the next meeting thereof following any such apointment or removal.

As stated above, the plan of Government as recommended in this report, has long since passed the experimental stage, and has met every test and is in successful operation in 130 cities and towns in the United States. Nine Virginia cities have adopted this new system, and others are getting ready for the change.

Results From Change

It might be interesting to know, in a general way, some of the tangible results you can expect to derive from the adoption of this improved system of city government.

Responsibility is absolutely fixed, and if proper results are not obtained you know who to look to. Any citizen having a complaint, or desiring to take up any matter with the City, can call on the City Manager and get a definite decision.

Your city finances will be put on a solid foundation and kept there.

Your annual budget will be intelligently prepared and publically exhibited before its adoption.

The development of the work of the different departments of your city government, will be planned with regard to their ultimate development, so that the work accomplished each year will be a definite part of a well conceived completed plan.

You will have details and facts in regard to your city affairs kept before you in a concise and business like form, in such a way that every interested citizen can know and understand the working of his government and intelligently judge the results obtained.

Unless your city is above the average at present, you can reasonably expect much larger returns for the outlay you provide in taxes, etc. The success of the Commission-Manager plan is based on the principal that for every dollar expended a hundred cents worth of service must be rendered.

There will be a complete coordination of all departments, so that they will work together more effectually and economically.

All city purchasing will be done through the office of the city manager, and will be done on a competitive basis, and supplies will be purchased in large quantities, and charged to an open stock account.

Dont get the idea, however, that the taking over of your affairs by a Commission-Manager plan is going to cause an upheaval in your city affairs. There will be a quiet gradual changement of affairs in which nobody will be hurt except those that are getting something for nothing, or those who can't adjust themselves to the new conditions.

How to Proceed

The next phase of the matter I will deal with for your consideration, is how to proceed, if you desire a change in City Government from the present system to the system suggested in this report.

The power of making the change rests in the hands of the qualified voters of the City of Alexandria, and an election will have to be held to show the desire of the people.

The advantages of the plan are so apparent, however, that to adopt the plan it will only be necessary to get the matter properly before the people, and they can be depended upon for an intelligent decision in the matter.

It might be interesting to know that after a short campaign in Norfolk, Virginia, 3,463 votes were cast for the Commission Manager Plan and only 1,222 against it.

I have every reason to believe that we will have the full co-operation of the present council in any move to provide an efficient and symplified system of government for Alexandria. The present City Council realizing the necessity of more direct administration, has already appointed a committee to investigate the City Manager plan and from the expressions I have heard, the Council will welcome the adoption of any improved plan.

However as the proposition is a new one, and a radical change from the old system, I cannot emphasize too strongly the necessity of getting the matter clearly before the people, and a strong organization should be perfected to handle the matter for the progressive citizenship, and see that it gets full publicity, before the election takes place.

The first step will be to circulate petitions, to secure the signatures of at least ten per cent of the voters, qualified to vote at the last election for Mayor or Councilmen, petitioning the Judge of the Circuit Court to call an election for a change in Government. As specified by law, the Judge of the Circuit Court will call an election on the matter, to be held not less than thirty nor more than ninety days thereafter, at which election the people will by their vote indicate whether they want a change or not.

The election will be conducted by the regular judge of election, and in the same manner as other elections are held.

Change Operative 1920.

If the majority of the qualified voters express themselves in favor of the change, the terms of the members of the present City Council and Mayor, will cease and determine September 1st, 1920. At the time of the next regular election for Mayor and Councilmen, the new council will be elected, consisting of five members elected at large, and one of whom will be ex-officio Mayor. The members so elected will enter upon their duties September 1st, 1920, and will put into operation the Commission Manager form of Government.

In conclusion I would state that this report has necessarily had to be drawn hurriedly, and as it deals with a large subject, it is not in exactly the shape I would like to have it.

I hope, therefore, in considering this report, and preparing the information for forwading to the general meeting, that you will not hesitate to amend or change it in any way that you may see fit.

Review By President Payne

President Payne in his report reviewed the work accomplished during the year touching on the aid given by the Chamber to the various Liberty Loan drives, Red Cross, United War Work, Knights of Columbus, Christmas Red Cross Roll Call, aid in the sanitary work, housing problem, co-operation with the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation, etc.

A review of the progress of Alexandria was given in the report and Mr. Payne in his report said in part: "A definite city plan should be adopted, in a few years we will find ourselves in a position where we will have to tear down and reorganize in order to build a modern city, which is going to be a necessity if we are to keep abreast of the other cities with which we are competing."

Report of Mr. Preston.

The report of J. T. Preston, secretary and treasurer, showed the receipts during the year to have been $23,825.27 and the balance on hand $1,409.56.

DISCIPLES OF JACK SHEPPARD.

A case which was investigated in the Police Court this morning was listened to with close attention by all present. Two youths, one an Alexandrian, and the other of Kansas City., Mo., were charged with felonies. They have, it is alleged, been breaking into and robbing stores in this city during the past few days. The Alexandrian has been in trouble on other occasions, but, under the present laws concerning juvenile offenders, he has managed to escape the due measure of his deserts. The youth from Kansas City is one of two brothers, one of whom was killed while fighting in France. The subject of this notice ran away from home two years ago. He is said to be the offspring of well-to-do people, who enjoy the confidence and respect of those in their home city. The youth now about to face the grand jury looks to be all of eighteen years of age, although he alleges he is but fifteen. An account of their exploits is printed elsewhere in the Gazette.

People acquainted with the history of Jonathan Wild, "Blueskin," and Jack Sheppard will see that the example of these criminals is still being followed by some young people, no matter what their parents may do to arrest them in their downward career.

It was shown at the investigation this morning that after entering a King street store these dare-devil youngsters secured a gun and several pistols, which they loaded and placed at convenient places for the purpose of using the same should the police enter while they were at work. At the time the robbery was in progress officers of the law were watching on the outside, as the store had been robbed a few nights before.

These young criminals had said that should they be sent to the reform school they would run away. Their case will be considered by the Corporation Court.

PERTINENT SUBJECTS

Rev. Carter Ashton Jenkins, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, of Richmond, last Sunday night preached a sermon on the sin against the Holy Ghost before his congregation. The church was crowded, every seat being taken, and several hundred were forced to return home on account of being unable to obtain entrance.

The "Second Coming of Christ" will be the subject for the sermon next Sunday night, when another packed auditorium is anticipated.

Insulting of the Holy Spirit was classed as the unpardonable sin and by that the preacher stated is meant giving the devil credit for something Jesus Christ did.

The question "What is the sin against the Holy Ghost?" is asked more often than any other subject connected with the scriptures The query is generally put in a confidential way to those who study the Bible by souls who show they are anxious, and should qualified teachers of the Bible deliver addresses on that and similar subjects they might not face so many empty pews.

Every man does not possess a theological library, and if such were common but few have the time to study books closely, and were the preachers to tackle subjects which have for centuries puzzled Bible readers they would find their congregations much larger than at present.

Alexander Pope, noted for his physical deficiency, was however, a ripe scholar. One one occasion, while in his early years, he was one of a group of literary characters who were puzzled as to the import of a certain Latin sentence. Pope, being the junior of the party, acted modestly, but finally suggested that should an interrogation point be placed after a certain word the sense would be plain. One of the party, in a sneering manner, turned to him and asked, "What is an interrogation point?" Pope quietly answered, "A little thing that asks question.

There are interrogation points in all congregations, and at times they are disposed to assert themselves.

COMING PEACE TREATY

The peace terms that are being formulated at Paris seem, in most respects, to have the proper amount of teeth in them. Germany's delegates will not be invited to the French capital to take part in a love feast, but to a banquet of bitter herbs and humble pie. This is what is indicated by the fragmentary out givings from the Conference, and there will be disappointment if any of the peace teeth should be drawn or blunted.

As a contemporary says, "the sense of justice would be outraged by any benevolent weakness toward Germany. It is as true now as it was during the war that Germany has been playing the part of an outlaw and a criminal. The fact that she has been beaten has not changed the fact that she conspired against the peace of the world, that she was the leader in an attempt to make despotism safe in all parts of the earth and that she was the chief factor in producing an appalling total of anguish, desolation and loss such as no single nation ever inflicted upon mankind before in the same space of time.

"She did all this as a nation, and she did it not only with sympathy but with enthusiasm. For half a century she had been getting ready for the day. She lent her mind and body eagerly and gladly to the role which Prussianism proposed. Her crime was the crime of a whole people, which was yearning to commit it. The iron must be made to enter into her soul now, if she is ever to understand the monstrous thing she has done. If the world is to be made safe against other criminals like her, Germany must not be treated as if she had done no wrong. The treaty of peace must bite her for years to come."

"If the Allies cannot punish all of those morally responsible as they should be punished, they can at least make an example of the ringleaders. Why should there be any hesitation in demanding the extradition of the former Emperor? Why should learned lawyers and diplomats be splitting hairs over technicalities in international law in the case of the man who was more responsible for the war than any other single individual? Why should they be more merciful to him than the associated nations were to Napoleon The only reason seems to be that Napoleon's enemies were afraid of him, while the Allies of today think William of Hohenzollern has been rendered harmless. But if he is to escape simply for that reason, a dangerous precedent will have been established for the benefit of rulers who may be disposed to imitate him thereafter."

"DRY" CONGRESSMEN

In 1885, when the late John S. Wise, republican, was the competitor of the late Fitzhugh Lee for Governor of Virginia, the former made a speech at Armory Hall, in Alexandria. The meeting was "captured" by friends of General Lee, who made it difficult for Wise to speak. Every time he mentioned the name of the democratic candidate loud applause went up. Wise was interrupted often. One of the audience suggested that republicans were animated by love of office, not patriotism. Wise replied: "That reminds me of the fox with its mouth full of feathers cursing every one who loves geese."

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Record says "the unselfish quality of the vote that imposed a prohibitionist constiutional amendment on the United States is illustrated by the records of importations of liquor into the District of Columbia in the weeks preceding the application of the Reed amendment to the capital.

"Express office ardent spirts, shipment receipts, placed on public record this week in the District of Columbia License Bureau, indicate that the Senate and House office buildings are sufficiently stocked to dispel Congressional thirst for quite a while. Congressmen, despite the dry era they have voted upon the country, will be able to "take it or leave it alone," just as they have been in the past.

The Record publishes the names of the members of both houses of Congress who laid in large supplies before voting to make the country "dry."

MUST RETURN DANZIG

The supposed intention of the Peace Council to give the city of Danzig to Poland, and to separate the Rhine provinces from Germany and erect them into an independent state, has greatly angered Germany, so the reports tell us. The Berlin newspapers are in a resentful mood. The Lokal Anzeiger says, "We regard it as absolutely certain that these demands will be rejected if they are made," and likens the giving of Danzig to the Poles to larceny. But, says an exchange, we may ask Germany, in the classic language of the immortal Tweed, "What are you going to do about it?" Whether Germany accepts the terms or not will probably not affect the result, except possibly to make the terms harder upon Germany if she rejects. Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap, and Germany is making it manifest that this applies to nations as well as to individuals. If it is larceny to take from a country a portion of its territory, then Germany has been the most illustrious thief of modern times. She has robbe devery neighbor. She stole Silesia from Austria on the south; she stole, Alsace and Lorraine from France on the west; she stole provinces from Denmark on the north, and on the east she seized one-third of the extensive kingdom of Poland. Germany is reaping the whirlwind, the natural and inevitable crop from that which she has sown. She is in no position and is powerless to resist such terms as the Peace Council will impose. Her army is scattered and demoralized, her navy gone, with no firmly established government, and torn with internal dissensions and warfare among her own people, Germany must submit to the terms imposed by her conquerors, just as France had to submit to the terms imposed by Germany in 1871.

MOTHERS JOY
SALVE

(Communicated)

Mr. Editor when I answered queer legislation, I did not know that it would bring forth a tirade of personal abuse from Geo. Hayden, but to let him know that there was one person at least that differed from him in regard to his pet so called "Joy Killing" movement such as the rum and Sabbath question, but I might have known that he could not or would not discuss a question with any one that did not have any bearing on personal matters with out he bringing them into the discussion, as he used to do in the Good Templars of old, when Golden Light Lodge was awake to the temperance question. That was a time when he was in good company, and he was willing then to make not only the good old U. S. A., dry but the entire globe. I know for a fact of several occurences right here in our city, when men crazed with rum and drink have driven their families from their homes, but George knows it all and no one can tell him anything.

Puffed up with his own conceit and self estimation he says that some of them caused more heart aches in families even in this city, than rum ever dared to. He says he once knew a man by the name of Charles R. Herbert in Alexandria but thought that he was dead. He is dead to such principles as you contend for such as ruin and Sabbath desecration, but very much alive to things nobler and higher.

Now I want to say in regard to my voting on the prohibition question in 1914, it caught me not having qualified to vote on account of not paying my poll tax as I had other debts to meet and could not pay both at the time and in 1915 I moved in Alexandria county and am in that county at the present time and have always taken an active part in the politics of the county and have)always paid my taxes and am a qualified voter of Jefferson district so if Paul pry George will take a day off and call on Mr Ball the county treasurer he can take a peep at his books and see if C. R. Herbert is a citizen of the United States.

Mr. Editor I do not want to bother you or your valuable space in the Gazette any more after this communication is printed because the good people of our city don't want to be bothered with all this baragne either from Professor Hayden or myself, not that I can't meet him as often as he comes but I don't want to tire our good citizens on this subject. Thanking you for your kindness of this privilege.

CHAS. R. HERBERT.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Emile Cottin, the anarchist who recently made an attempt upon the life of Premier Georges Clemenceau, was yesterday sentenced to death by the court martial which was trying him. The verdict of the court martial was unanimous.

The allied economic council have presented the German representatives with the new terms for revictualing that country, which require Germany to turn over her merchant fleet. The Germans were permitted to ask questions but not to discuss the terms.

President Ebert, addressing a meeting of German officials and experts interested in the peace negotiations, announced the pourparlors of the peace preliminaries would begin about March 20. Count Bernstorf who has been charged by the government to prepare a general report of the German viewpoint on territorial and economic questions, also spoke.

"Get Debs out or go to jail with him," was the slogan adopted at a conference at the home of Mrs. Margaret Prevey, at Akron, attended by Eugene V. Debs, James Larkin, Sinn Fein leader, and John Reed. Mrs. Prevey said: "Terrible times are impending in the United States with bloodshed looming, if the sentence of ten years against Debs is put into effect."

When Justice Gould, of the District of Columbia Supreme Court, declared the Saulsbury act unconstitutional, he automatically gave hundreds of tenants in Washington their notice to move. The Saulsbury act, which prevented the ousting of tenants during the pendency of the war, has been the legal barrier that checked wholesale evictions when the rental prices began to soar with the influx of the war workers.

President Wilson plunged into the work of effecting an early peace immediately after his arrival in Paris at noon yesterday. After a brief conference with Premier Lloyd George, who was waiting at the Wilsons' new residence, the President and the British leader went to the Hotel Crillon, where they talked with Premier Clemenceau. The President's arrival was practically simultaneous with a virtual crisis over the hitherto sleeping question of secret treaties.

Arrest of the principal Spartacan leaders has turned the revolt in Berlin into little more than mob action, facilitating the work of the government in restoring order. All the radical groups now under arms total less than 40,000, it is said. The Lokal Anzeiger declares that more than 100 Spartacans have been executed since Sunday. Work is being resumed in most of the small factories but the situation is said to be still serious. In Leipzig, bourgeois workmen ended their strike, but work could not be resumed in several factories owing to the lack of coal.

A general freight embargo was established yesterday afternoon on all railroad lines entering Atlanta, Ga., following the walkout of 1,500 members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Clerks. Every freight depot in Atlanta closed its doors, and the offices of the various railroad lines were deserted. Atlanta, Nashville, Memphis Chattanooga and other Southern cities were faced with a complete freight and passenger tie-up following the walk out. The strike was caused by the alleged antagonistic attitude toward the clerks' union, and union labor in general assumed by A. P. Ottarson, Federal auditor. The removal of Ottarson is demanded.

An immediate cut of 80 per cent in the United States Employment Service was ordered Thursday because its appropriations failed with the Republican filibuster. Orders to this effect were sent out to all branch offices of the service by the Labor Department, after a final effort to save the service had been made by a wireless appeal to President Wilson. The President was asked to set aside part of his war emergency fund, but replied that none of this was now available. Twenty-two thousand employes of the service will be discharged, it was stated at the Labor Department. This will leave only about 6,000 to carry on the employment service work throughout the country.

A split in the Republican majority in the next House of Representatives has loomed up stronger than at any time since Representatve Mann, of Illinois, seized control of the recent caucus and became the dominating influence in the Committee on Committees. The Committee on Commitees, acting under the domination of the Mann faction, Thursday turned down a proposal to increase the membership of the steering committee to give representation to labor and the progressive sentiment of the West. Following this action, Representative Longworth, of Ohio, who has vigorously opposed the committee's rigid adherence to the seniority rule in deciding chairmanships and apportioning committee assignments, declared he would carry his fight to the Republican caucus.

A SPLENDID TONIC

Says Hixon Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn., —"About 10 years ago I was," says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place, "I sufferd with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try som more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommended it as a splendid female tonic."

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists. 62-3t

TO FIGHT LEAGUE PLAN

Washington, March 14.—Preliminary plans for the formation of a national nonpartisan organization designed to keep the American people better informed as to events at the Peace Conference and to oppose acceptance of the constitution of the league of nations as now drawn were made at a conference yesterday between Senators Reed, of Missouri, Democrat, and Borah, of Idaho, and Poindexter, of Washington, Republican, and George Wharton Pepper, a lawyer of Philadelphia.

After the conference it was announced that Henry Watterson, former publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal, would be president of the organizatin, with Mr. Pepper as directing supervisor. It was said that many Senators who have been active in opposition to approval of the league constitution would support the organization.

Senator Reed announced that a statement outlining the purposes of the organization would be issued within a few days. One purpose, it was explained, would be the co-ordination of various local bodies that have been formed over the country in opposition to the league. Present plans call for establishment of a speakers' bureau and the conducting of an intensive campaign of publicity throughout the country. Senators said the organization would be supported by voluntary contributions and that headquarters probably would be established at New York.

Suggestions were made at the conference today that representatives be sent to Paris while the peace negotiations are in progress, but no agreement was reached.
